Road Safety

Parents please remember to park, drop off children and turn at appropriate places. Some unsafe and inconsiderate driving has been causing concern. Please help us role model the correct use of the road safety for our tamariki.

Reporting on Maori Student Achievement Survey

- Surveys have been sent home in the mail this week
- Please take the time to read and comment on the cultural and educational provisions Glenholme School has for our Maori tamariki
- Your comments and thoughts are valued

All completed and returned questionnaires will go in the draw to win a family pass to Skyline Skyrides. Return completed questionnaire via your child/ren to the Glenholme School Office by Thursday 2nd June. Forms also available on the school website.

PRINCIPALS AWARDS—TERM 2 WEEK 2

- A1: Jarrod Ohlsen for being a helpful & responsible class member who always goes out of his way to help the teacher. Thanks Jarrod.
- A2: Ethan Coombe for showing that regardless of having a huge amount of school work to do in class, he still has a witty sense of humour.
- A2: Tihini Te Whare – for being polite and respectful in the classroom all the time.
- A6: Jamie LeComte for excellent behaviour and very hard work in printing and writing, in spite of her broken arm. Well done, Jamie!
- B2: Jayson Bennett-Blitvic- for coming to school with a fantastic attitude at the start of term 2. Keep up the good work, the green cards and the positive attitude!
- B3: Jasper Dowland for impressing me with his written explanation regarding a fictional issue at school. Jasper was given a written task to complete with no teaching instruction prior to the writing but he showed he was able to convey his opinion. I cannot wait to see what kind of persuasive writing you do after learning all about this type of genre.
- B4: Ray-Borneo Howden: Putting a lot of thought into his persuasive writing, with strong ideas to back up his point of view.
- B5: Kiwa Johnstone for completing an excellent and well thought out persuasive letter to the school BOT.
- B5: Amtiri Torres-Gutierrez – for his overall effort and enthusiasm in all subjects this week. Kia kaha ra Amtiri!
- B6: Oceania Chisnall-Karaitiana for her fantastic attitude towards writing. She is keen to write and is trying really hard. Keep up the great work Ocean.
- C1: Kahlia Kiel for always being a most responsible and reliable student when carrying out tasks both inside and outside of the classroom.
- C2: Josiah Rimaha for his Athletics top achiever award. A definite candidate for the Rotomaths Competition this year!
- C6: Destiny Warena—for being a super sensible, and helpful Year 1 girl, with the most marvellous manners!
- C7 Pranav Ramsuroop for his excellent written language this week. He has been able to independently write good persuasive stories. Great work Pranav.

Congratulations to the following children who have been named the highest achievers in Mathletics to date at Glenholme School.

- 1st – Josiah Rimaha C2
2nd – Ti'an Paretoa C2
3rd – Daniel Jensen C2
